

D. (Foreign) intelligence agencies: one-way data flow

C. Law enforcement: can access data selectively (want more of it, e.g., for tax enforcement)

B. Non-financial data industry: merchants and advertisers – want more payments data for increased profits

A. Financial industry: have electronic payments data, but don't use them much today